Sample Company Policy Handbook

Company: ExampleWorks Ltd. (fictional company for learning purposes)

Effective date: 1 January 2026

1. Working Hours

The standard working schedule is Monday to Friday, from 9:00 AM to 5:30 PM. Employees should inform their manager if they expect to arrive late or need to leave early. Team schedules may differ with manager approval.

2. Leave Policy

Full-time employees receive 20 days of paid annual leave per calendar year. Leave requests should be submitted through the employee portal and approved by the manager before the leave begins. Employees should give at least five working days' notice for planned leave whenever possible.

3. Sick Leave

Employees may take up to 10 days of sick leave per calendar year. If an employee is absent for more than three consecutive working days, the company may request supporting documentation, subject to applicable law and company procedures. Employees should notify their manager as soon as practical.

4. Remote Work

Employees may request to work remotely up to two days per week, subject to role requirements and manager approval. Employees working remotely must protect company information and remain reachable during their agreed working hours.

5. Expense Reimbursement

Work-related expenses must be supported by receipts and submitted through the expense system within 30 days of the purchase. Expenses above ■5,000 require written manager approval before purchase. Reimbursement is subject to review and the company's finance procedures.

6. Information Security

Employees must use strong passwords, enable multi-factor authentication where available, and never share login credentials. Suspected data loss, phishing, or unauthorized access must be reported to the IT team promptly.

7. Code of Conduct

Employees are expected to treat colleagues, customers, and partners respectfully. Harassment, discrimination, retaliation, and misuse of company resources are not permitted. Concerns can be reported to Human Resources or a manager.

8. Learning Exercise

This handbook is fictional and intended only for practicing document loading in Google Colab. It is not legal advice or a real company's official policy.
